Things to look forward to...

We have had a busy half term since Christmas and next term is set to be equally exciting.

World Book Day is coming up on Thursday 7th March. It is always a great day where we celebrate reading and literacy. As part of the fun, some of the Senior staff will be coming over to share their favourite book and we are inviting the children to dress up as their favourite book character.

We are also delighted that we will be swimming again after the holidays at Grand Central Swimming Pool on a Friday afternoon.

Brilliant Poems

This week the children have written poems about someone they know. The poems were very funny and made us all smile.

Here is Ali's poem:

Night came down
My parents fast asleep
My brother creeps
Creak creak creak creak
Downstairs he goes
Towards the fridge
The light comes on
Yum Yum Yum
He eats the cake
My dad comes downstairs
"For goodness sake," he says
My brother stops in fear
And runs for the stairs
He runs to his room and goes to bed.

Bookworms

The children have been enjoying reading Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone this half term and will take it home to read during the holidays.

As a thank you for our Book Fair in November, The Book People have supplied class copies of The Diary of a Wimpy Kid which will be our next book.

Parent/Teacher Consultation

Please look out for the Parent/Teacher Consultation letter. Miss Keddy will be available to talk about the INCAS assessment, your child's targets in Maths and English and their overall progress in the JLC.

Rufus Clocks on to Maths

Congratulations to Rufus who did some marvellous Maths this week. He took his 'time' to convert 12 hours into 24 hours and back again. Great work!
